Travel advice

Places of worship

- There are facilities that provide areas for prayers.

Wudu

- Since there are few dedicated facilities for Wudu in Japan, it is advisable to perform Wudu before going out.
- In Japan, it is considered an act of cleanliness not to get the sink area wet. When performing Wudu, please be careful not to get the sink area excessively wet.

Food & drink

- There are many Japanese dishes that you can eat such as sushi, tempura, soba (buckwheat noodles), udon (wheat noodles), fish and shellfish, etc.
- "Mirin" (sweet cooking rice wine) is a common seasoning (small amounts of alcohol) used in Japanese food. However, the alcohol evaporates when cooked.

Souvenirs

- Some souvenirs may contain lard, gelatin or emulsifier (shortening) with a pork-derived ingredient.

Restrooms

- Toilets equipped with an automatic cleaning function can be found in Japan. At the push of a button, water is sprayed automatically for cleansing.

Public baths/hot springs

- In a Japanese public bath, you take off all your clothes to take a bath. In principle, it is not permitted to have your swimsuit on or a towel around your body.

Wi-Fi spots

- Wi-Fi is available at hotels, restaurants, etc.
